

Not only do we believe in the future of the Permian,
we're investing in it today.

$230 million in new investment

For years, Kinder Morgan CO<sub>2</sub> Company has been helping producers get more oil from maturing wells across the Permian. And we believe there's more success ahead.

That's why we're now investing more than $230 million in SACROC and other CO<sub>2</sub> infrastructure serving the Permian.

Investing in existing fields, helping producers extract more from their assets, acquiring and developing maturing properties – Kinder Morgan will be part of the Permian for years to come.
